F

Turn the letter F into a flower.

Here is what you need:

ten or more green construction
paper letter Fs

ruler

white glue

scissors

large sheet of construction paper in a different shade of green

tissue paper in lots of colors

Here is what you do:

1. For each flower cut three 3-inch (8-cm) circles of tissue paper from three different shades of the same color. Stack the tissue circles together.
2. To make the flower head, pinch the tissue circles together at the center and make a tiny twist in the tissue to hold the shape.
3. Glue the flower head to the end of the top of a letter F. Round off the top corner of the F to make it look like a bent flower stem.
4. Glue lots of flowers in different colors onto the sheet of green construction paper.

Now you'll have a whole field of letter F flowers!

G

Turn the letter G into a floating ghost in a box.

Here is what you need:

white construction
paper letter G

black pen

two tiny wiggly eyes

tiny black bead

white facial tissue

white glue

Here is what you do:

1. Turn the letter G on the open side. Use the pen to draw a line across the bottom to make it look like a box with an open lid. Write a warning on the box.

2. Cover the curved part of the G with glue. Fold the tissue around the curved part of the G to make the ghost.

3. Glue the two wiggle eyes and the bead on the top of the ghost to make a face.

The letter G ghost is hungry. Can you find some magazine pictures of foods that begin with the letter G? (This ghost will only gobble G foods!)

H

Turn the letter H into a horse.

Here is what you need:

construction paper
letter H

yarn

white glue

markers

scissors

construction paper scraps

Here is what you do:

1. Fold the letter H in half, top to bottom, to form the body of the horse.
2. Cut a neck and head for the horse from construction paper scraps.
3. Use the markers to give the horse a face, a mane, and an ear on each side.
4. Glue the head into the fold at one end of the body.
5. Cut some strands of yarn for the tail of the horse. Unravel the yarn strands. Glue one end of the strands into the fold at the back of the horse.
6. Cut a saddle for the horse from a folded piece of construction paper. Glue the saddle on the back of the horse.

To make a home for the letter H horse, turn a box over and cut a door in one side. Paint the outside of the box, and decorate the inside with pictures of things that start with the letter H.

Turn the letter I into an inchworm.

Here is what you need:

green or brown construction paper letter I

colorful construction paper scraps

hole punch

two tiny wiggly eyes

white glue

Here is what you do:

1. Round off the corners at both ends of the letter I to make the inchworm.

2. Fold the inchworm back and forth like you would to make a fan.

3. Glue the two wiggle eyes to one end of the inchworm.

4. Punch some dots out of the colorful construction paper. Glue the punched-out dots on the body of the inchworm for spots.

Make two letter I inchworms and have a race with a friend. Squeeze air from empty detergent bottles to propel the inchworms across the floor.
