J

Turn two letter Js into a jolly juggler.

Here is what you need:

four medium pom-poms

white glue

two tiny wiggly eyes

scissors

two construction
paper letter Js

markers

construction paper in various colors

trim

tiny pom-pom

Here is what you do:

1. Glue the two Js onto a piece of construction paper, with the side of one J over the side of the other and the hooks sticking out on each side to look like arms.
2. Cut a circle head from construction paper. Glue the head over the top portion of the center of the two Js.
3. Cut a triangle-shaped hat from construction paper. Glue the hat on the top part of the head.
4. Glue the wiggle eyes below the hat. Use the markers to draw a nose and mouth.
5. Glue the tiny pom-pom to the tip of the hat. Decorate the hat by gluing on the trim.
6. Glue a medium pom-pom to the top of each hook arm of the J and two more up in the air.

Can you think of some other actions that start with the letter J that the letter J juggler might do? How about jump or jiggle? Can you do that, too?

K

Make a letter K that kicks.

Here is what you need:

construction paper letter K

picture of a pair of shoes or boots from an old magazine or catalog

paper fastener

construction paper scrap

scissors

white glue

Here is what you do:

1. Cut the bottom leg off the letter K. Cut a strip of construction paper to glue to the top of the cut leg to extend it behind the middle of the rest of the letter K. Glue the extension strip on the cut piece.
2. Reattach the leg to the K with a paper fastener so that the leg swings back and forth to kick.
3. Cut out a pair of boots or shoes from an old catalog or magazine to fit the bottom of the letter K.
4. Glue a shoe or boot to each leg of the letter K.

Go through an old magazine looking for pictures of things that start with the letter K.

Whenever you spot one, have the letter K kick it.

L

Make a lizard from the letter L.

Here is what you need:

green construction
paper letter L

scissors

red yarn

white glue

masking tape

two tiny wiggly eyes

piece of sticky-back magnet

rickrack trim

green pipe cleaner

Here is what you do:

This letter L lizard is perfect for holding lists on the refrigerator.

Make some long narrow pieces of paper with lines across to use for lists.

M

Make a mouse with the letter M.

Here is what you need:

construction paper
letter M

white glue

scissors

two wiggly eyes

paper clip

marker

construction paper
scraps

pom-pom

Here is what you do:

1. Use the marker to draw tiny claws on the two outer bars of the letter M, which will become the front legs of the mouse. Pull the two outer bars of the letter M behind the center and glue them together. Use a paper clip to hold them together while the glue is drying.
2. Glue a pom-pom nose to the point of the letter M. Glue the two wiggle eyes above the nose.
3. Cut two round ears from the construction paper. Glue an ear to the top of the letter M on each side.

Can you name some munchies that the letter M mouse might eat that start with the letter M?

Turn the letter N into a necktie of your own design.

Here is what you need:

construction paper letter
N in a light color

markers

scissors

Here is what you do:

1. Trim the two ends of the letter N into points to resemble a necktie.
2. Use the markers to make a design on the necktie.

Cut pictures of neckties from old catalogs. On a sheet of construction paper, glue each set of three together in the shape of the letter N.
